The Board shall be authorized to take such action as it deems proper to protect the public interest and to ensure the proper administration of the law.

9. If all the shells are not removed within the period prescribed in clause 8 above, then for each day after the date of expiry of the 10% per day per gross weight will be charged for the next 20 days after the date of removal within this period. A rate of 10% per gross weight, 10% per day per gross weight for one month will be charged and beyond three (3) 10% per day per gross weight for any subsequent period. The shells will be sold on the premises at the risk of the lessee.

18 Every facility will be given to the conductors for inspection of shells at Telukera.

19. The flattened shells shall be delivered without charge and without receipting and the value shall be accepted as regards the number of shells for all the purposes as sanctioned by the Assistant Director, Fisheries, Telukera. The owner shall accept the shells as they are issued by the Government at Telukera. No allowance will be made for any loss or damage incurred and delivered off, this may be found in the long of flattened shells. The purchase of the shells shall be at the risk of the owner and the Government will not be responsible in regard to the quality of any of the shells as come up to the specification. Therefore each dealer must be aware that they must find and accept these conditions.

20 The successful bidder must be prepared to accept a formal contract embodying the above above conditions within three days from the date of the completion of his tender.

21 Further particulars will be supplied on application to the Assistant Director, Fish and Shell Fisheries, Telukera.

H. SUNDARA RAJ,
Director of Fisheries.
